REYMAN E MAIL REPORT – 12 FEBRUARY 2008

Hello from partly cloudy and chilly Crescent City, California, USA. It's been fun being with our son, Lonnie (and his wife, Beth), on his birthday, which was February 6th. This is Karen reporting on our travels.

IN THE USA

Thank you for the many prayers offered on our behalf during our travels back to the USA and the funeral for my Mom. The service for my Mom was a fitting tribute to her life of giving and her faith, which was passed on to each of her children. We are very thankful for the people at the Vale Christian Church and the community of Vale, Oregon, who blessed our family with love and many acts of kindness. In sorting and cleaning Mom's house, I came upon a gem that I would like to pass on to you. It was a note written on the front of the church directory:

"Jesus taught two messages-come here and go there."

Our family decided to ask that memorials be given to Khayelihle Children's Village. We have started a guest/volunteer house that we are calling the Reyman-Fulleton Memorial Guest cottage because it is being built with money given in memory of Paul's mother and my father. The cottage will be used by us when visiting KCV and by any other volunteer workers. The money given in memory of my mother will allow us to continue building. Plans were drawn up on our visit to Bulawayo last October. We made arrangements then to put in the water system and the water tank has been erected and connections made to the borehole. Water is needed at the building site so that the foundation and slab can be poured and the bricks laid. It will consist of three side by side rooms each with a small dining/living room, a kitchenette, a bathroom and bedroom.

After helping my brothers and sister in Vale, Paul and I went for a couple of days to Portland, Oregon, then to a family function over the weekend and watched the super bowl with my sister in Eugene, Oregon, visited another sister in Drain, Oregon, and drove Tuesday, February 5th to Crescent City, California where we are visiting our son and daughter-in-law as well as Paul's father.

Next week we will be in Portland, Oregon. Then we plan to fly to Atlanta, Georgia, on the 26th of February and visit our daughter, Laurie, who lives in Athens, Georgia, and my mother's sister. On the 3rd of March we fly back to Johannesburg, arriving on the 4th.

NEWS FROM KHAYELIHLE CHILDREN'S VILLAGE

Jabulani Xaba, the director of KCV reports:

The children had a wonderful Christmas and a blessed New Year. Thanks to you all for your prayers and Christmas presents.

Second Australian house under construction

The 2nd Australian House is almost complete. Mr. and Mrs. Jabulani Ndiweni are the house parents and they have moved in. We will take in new children as soon as the house is furnished.

We have not been able to work on the Zimbabwean House because of the cash shortages. Constant rainfall has also stopped us from working at the preschool. This is because it was very muddy so it was difficult to mix cement and sand and to push the wheelbarrow. However, it is almost dry and we will soon be starting to put the final touches on the building.

It is our plan to work on an orchard at the farm from funds donated by Christ in Youth. We intend to put up the tank and stand this week as we were delayed by heavy rainfall. We also intend to build a stonewall behind the orchard, but have been unable to collect the stones because of the rains.

We grew maize on two acres of our land, but soon after the heavy rainfall the crops were leaching and it was difficult to work on the fields. The maize crop had also turned yellow, but because of a bit of a dry spell, it is now becoming green again.

The KCV church is doing very well. Programs such as Sunday school, junior worship, youth group, women's fellowship, men's fellowship and church choir are being carried out. Five individuals have been baptized within the past three weeks. We praise God for the good work He is doing for KCV.

POINTS FOR PRAYER

Praise for safety in travel and many acts of kindness for my family.

Praise for the progress in building and the growth of the church at KCV.
